Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3625

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-11, 13, and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chaves (US 2001/0044769).

Chaves discloses a remote negotiation apparatus which allows, before a sale of a vehicle, a first operation terminal used by a salesman of the vehicle and a second operation terminal used by a customer to bi-directionally communicate and remotely negotiate in real-time through a communication environment. See pars. 0013 and 0019.

The apparatus comprises a control unit which displays a predetermined form corresponding to a commercial transaction document related to the vehicle on the first operation terminal, request the salesman to input information necessary for preparing the commercial transaction document, and stores the input information in a storage device, and which displays on the second operation terminal, a commercial transaction document having the same contents as the commercial transaction document prepared by the salesman, on the basis of the stored information in the storage device and updated in real-time, wherein the commercial transaction document is at least one of an estimate, a contract, or a purchase order. See par. 0027.

Chaves equally discloses a remote negotiation method and a computer readable medium having embodied therein a program for instructing a computer to perform the steps of the method. See pars. 0023-0127 and par. 0010.

A customer can provide an instruction for designating a third party who is permitted to browse the document. Note that the system interfaces with Financial Institutions. See pars. 0287 and 0022.

During the negotiation process changes to the document are permitted. After the negotiation process is finalized changes are not permitted. Note that the negotiation process results in a binding contract. See par. 0128.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-14 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
